A NEW DANGER REVEALED.

Shirt Waists Are Not Safe if the Windows Are Open.

Mrs. Kate Pettit, who presides over the wardrobes of the Uhrig's Cave singers, wore a long and thoughtful look last night. She was wondering how she was to get home without her shirt waist. Mrs. Pettit has the masculine habit of taking off her superfluous garments when she goes to work. Last evening, as every one knows, the atmosphere was humid, and all the city perspired. So Mrs. Pettit divested herself of her shirt walst. She hung it on a peg in her room, which is on the Locust street side. The peg was near the window and the window was wide open. About 3 o'clock, far in the distance were heard the songs and shouts of a very convivial party, whose members had a bugle with them. They were coming down Locust

Mrs. Pettit heard them as they were opposite her window and looked toward it. Imagine her consternation to see a large whip flirt in the window and curl about her whip hirt in the window and curi about her shirt waist and disappear with the garment as it was jerked out. A derisive yell of laughter burst from the men as they whirled down the street waving the waist. They were still waving when Mrs. Pettit saw them vanish in the distance.

A movement is on foot to put a one-half cent coin in general use in the United States. Several suggestions have been made to the Government, and a document was presented, signed by the heads of the big department stores in the yarlous large cities throughout the country, showing the needs for this money in making change where articles are sold at 12% cents and similar prices. As time flies, progress finds many methods of improvement, but for half a century past in spite of many imitations, nothing has arisen to equal Hostetter's Stomach Bittors, one of the greatest benefactors the human race has ever known. About 190 accepted his invitation, and then the pastor gave them a plain talk on rational dress, regardless of place.

But the greater surprise of all came to-day when the entire police force appeared on the streets without their coats and with their badges planed on shirts, that, if they were not uniform, were at least neat and with the streets with the streets and with the streets of the streets without their coats and with their badges planed on shirts, that, if they were not uniform, were at least neat and the innovation, which was followed by a

The police also were straw hats and showed their appreciation of the departure from the regulation uniforms by giving three cheers for Mayor Hatch, when orders were made known to them by Chief of Police Fester.

The preliminary orders were issued by the Chief yesterday, but not until this morning did all the men take advantage of the Mayor's permission. When the morning squad reported yesterday Chief Foster walked out of his office wearing an immac ulate shirt waist of white cambric, with his gold badge gleaming from the front. There was a murmur of surprise that was quickly subdued when the Chief began to

"Next season some genius will put on the market a man's shirt waist that won't be a shirt," said the manager of Bradford Tripler, gentlemen's furnisher, in the Potter building. "It will contain the pockets or be decorated with ruffles or something, and perhaps have different kinds of sleeves, to

It must have skirts that tuck in the trousers, like the present shirt waist, and perhaps there will be something in the way of trills or something to conceal the union of shirt and trousers."

One shirt dealer suggested that the waist be cut something like a policeman's tunic with big coat buttons to remove the shirt effect, and with no cuffs.

He thought the present patterns, which are purely of the shirt style, must be supplanted by somber colors, black or brown, or the shades used for summer cloth suits. Another suggestion was the shirt on the Fat Men Oppose Shirt Walst.

Objection in bulk to the shirt-walst man comes from men gifted with more than their share of too solid fiesh. The fat man is the shirt-walst man's deadly enemy. This fact was surprising to investigators who discovered it, but calm, analytical consideration shows it to be but natural.

The reason that the fat man expresses aversion to the male shirt waist is because it is not becoming to him. As long as the fat man keeps on his coat his troubles are concealed, as it were. He may, by judicious and continued mopping, keep his face from resembling the exterior surface of a Mexican water bag, but once his shirt is revealed—well, it attracts attention.

The best field for observation of the fat man in a shirt waist is Madison Square Garden during a prize fight. A casual study of the heavy, coatless persons at such an affair is convincing evidence that the fat man, in opposing the shirt waist, is a person of rare discrimination and good taste.

Tom Reed, for instance, is not a shirtwaist man. He has refused to talk for Mark Hanna works in his shirt sleeves in his office, but he would as soon think of going to church in a bathing suit as of going into a public place without his coat. He was talking to a friend the other day about the shirt-walst habit. Said he:

"The original shirt-walst man is the tugboat deck hand on the Great Lakes. He has been frequenting the dinner table attired in a pair of trousers and a shirt as long as I can remember."

Eugene O'Rourke, the actor, is a fat man who can wear a shirt waist gracefully, but he views the future with alarm. 'The next thing,' he said, "the man whose feet hurt him will be promenading in his socks, and from the sock man it is only a step to the pajama man. After that the Lord only knows what's to become of those of us that try to be in the fashion."

A humorous phase of the shirt-waist fad that may occasion some merriment among votaries of the new fashion was created yesterday afternoon by a friend of Delegate "Jim" Cronin.

A well-known haberdasher telephoned Mr. Cronin, informing him that a shirt waist had been ordered for him. Mr. Cronin was speechless with surprise, but he instructed

Mr. Albright's resolution, if presented, will probably be the first of such a nature of fered in any municipal body.

The Chinese Government is believed to be sincere in its professions of intentions to furnish the Ministers with an adequate force to conduct them out of the city, but the Ministers evidently have good reason to believe that the Imperial authorities will not be able to hold the escort to its duty if the foreigners in leaving Pekin were assaulted by a mob. Whether from fear of the effect on its own people or from reasons of pride, the Chinese Government is strongly opposed to the entrance of foreign troops into the capital. But a decision must be made quickly. The allies are approaching Pekin and the Powers decline to stop their advance until arrangements for the rescue of the foreigners satisfactory to the Ministers are made. General Chaffee has by this time probably received the suggestion of this Government that the flug of truce plan be proposed to the Chinese authorities. This plan contemplates the entrance into Pekin under a flag of truce of part of the allied force omposed of representatives of every naionality in the main command, the rescue party to bear arms. Protected by the white flag, the international contingent is to march into Pekin and to Legation street, hope to remedy the condition of his where the Ministers, missionaries, women, children, all other foreigners and 3 000 native charge of his affairs and do all that was Christians are to be formed into line and escorted to the gate by their rescuers. The failure to comply with the demands of the Powers in this respect will unquestionably bring official and technical war.

FORCE THAT IS NEEDED.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 13 .- M. de Giers, the Russian Minister in Pekin, reports in cipher, under date of August 4, as follows: "The Chinese Government recently applied to us and to all the foreign representatives in order to arrange the date and conditions of our journey to Tien-Tsin. "I consider it my duty to point out, as indispensable to our journey, that the allied forces sent as an escort should be of sufficient force to protect 800 Europeans, including 290 women and children and fifty wounded. It appears that the journey to Tien-Tsin at the present season of the year is dangerous, owing to lack of means of communication.

BLUNDER AT YANG-TSUN. British and Russian Batteries Bombarded Americans.

London, Aug. 14, 4:25 a. m .- A Yang-Tsun dispatch, dated August 7, giving details regarding the capture of that place, "The Russians and French held the left, the British the left center, the Americans the right center and the Japanese the extreme right. The British and Americans advanced on the village at a rapid rate for 5,000 yards under a severe shell and rifle fire. The Russians onened, and the British-American advance became a race for positions, culminating in a brilliant charge, "The heaviest loss of the day was sus tained by the Americans, the Fourteenth having nine killed, wounded and several missing. The Bengal Lancers unsuccessfully attempted to cut off the Chinese retreat.' Another Yang-Tsun special says: "Owing to a mistake, British and Russian guns shelled the Fourteenth United States Infantry during the night, wounding ten."

Commenting upon this occurrence, the "It is melancholy to learn that the losses of the Americans, who seem to have borne themselves with conspicuous gallantry, were increased by a deplorable error, in consequence of which one of their regiments was pounded by Russian and British cannon. The incident emphasizes the necessity of that close co-operation which is not easily obtainable without a single commander and a general staff."

The Japanese suffered no casualities at Yang-Tsun, but the official reports say they had 300 at Pei-Tsang.

CABLES FROM MISSIONARIES. All Methodists Safe Except Those in Pekin. New York, Aug. 13.-Doctor A. B. Leonard, corresponding secretary of the Methodist Missionary Society, to-day received a cablegram from the Reverend Spencer Lewis of the West China Mission. The message, which came from Shanghai, was to the effect that the missionaries who left Chung-King about ten days ago had arirrived safely at Shanghai on the 13th inst. They are: The Reverend Olin Cady and family, the Reverend J. O. Curnow and family, the Reverend W. E. Manley family, the Reverend Spencer Lewis and family, the Reverend H. E. Peat and family, the Reverend Joseph Beech, Clara J. Collier and Miss Helen R. Galloway. Doctor Leonard said to-day that of all the missionaries now in China under the direction of the Methodist Society, the only ones supposed to be still in peril are those in Pekin. Those in Pekin number eighteen. So far none of the Methodist misdonaries are known to have been killed. Robert E. Speer, one of the secretaries of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Misions, received a cable dispatch to-day from Charles F. Johnson. It was dated from the German city of Tsintau, and was as follows: "Ichowfu looted." Ichowfu is in the Shan-Tung Province The property in the Presbyterian mission there is estimated to have been worth about $20,000. The buildings included two hospitals. The missionaries themselves escaped from Ichowfu to Tsintau some time

CAPTURED WHOLE CAMP.

Russian Report on the Battle of Pei-Tsang.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 13.—The dispatch of General Linevitch, commander of the Russian troops in the Province of Pe-Chi-Li, to the Russian Minister of War, General Kouropatkine, describing the capture of Pel-Tsang and Yang-Tsun, has been published here, but adds little to the details already known. General Linevitch estimates that the Chinese at Pel-Tsanz were 25,000 strong. He says their left flank was mined and provided with bomb proofs. Their hurried flight prevented them from destroy ing a bridge of boats, and this enabled the allies to capture the whole camp, including ment to Serve in China. Washington, Aug. 13.-Copies of Manila papers received at the War Department contain a letter purporting to be from a personal friend of Aguinaldo, which states that the Filipino chief does not take ad-vantage of the amnesty proclamation be-cause some time ago he gave orders to his followers to break up into guerrilla bands. The amnesty order excepts those who vio-lated the laws of war, and it states that Aguinaldo fears that he would be in the excepted class should be undertake to sur-render under the amnesty proclamation. The letter is dated at Biac-No-Bato, which is said to be the present provisional head-quarters of Aguinaldo. It states, however, that Aguinaldo never spends more than one night in a place, and only a few hours in any one location. He allows no one to come near him, except his most intimate personal friends. A dispatch in one of the papers, dated at San Pedro Macati, states that General Pio Del Pilar, who recently surrendered, says he wishes to become good American citizen and intends to ac-

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 13.-Miss Charlotte Elizabeth Hawes of Pittsburg, a Presbyterian missionary at Wei-Hslen who with the Reverend Frank Chalfant of Pittsburg and Miss Boughton of New York. all dressed as Chinese,, made a thrilling escape over a wall from the burning mis sionary buildings at Wei-Hsien, arrived home to-day. In relating her experience,

Miss Hawes said: "The deaths of Baron von Ketteler and The Japanese Chancelor in Pekin were horrible, the latter being buried alive in the sand with his head down. A week before the trouble began, Mrs. Conger, along with the other ladies of the legations, attended a luncheon which the Empress Dowager gave. Mrs. Conger drank out of the same teacup with the Empress, and came home telling what a nice lady she was and how hospitably they had been treated. "Our troubles became serious in the after. noon of Monday, June 25, when the Boxers broke into the rear of the compound, which covered seven acres. We decided to try to escape through the front yard, which was empty.

"We all started downstairs and through the sitting-room past the folding doors into the dining-room. All the Boxers who were in the dining-room needed to do at this juncture was to open the folding doors and they would have had us all, but it seems God's providence saved us, for the Boxers could not understand how to open from the outside. Up we went and just as we were going over the wall, some Boxers, who were in the next yard, cried out: 'The fereign devils are getting away; Kill them! Kill them!"

"But the Boxers who were in our house were too busy looking things over in Mr. Chalfant's study and examining the boxes of stuff we had packed, and they did not attempt to follow us. We hid in ditches and fields until dark and, keeping away from roads, finally reached the German mines at Fang-Tze.

The dwellings there are surrounded by a big wall, covered with broken beer and wine bettles, so that the natives could not climb over. We were glad to see such bottles put to a purpose.

"Next morning the Chinese came out and set fire to the shaft and destroyed several thousand dellars worth of property. "I think the worst of the trouble is over and no harm will come to the members of

VON WALDERSEE'S MISSION.

Russian View of the Position He Will Occupy. London, Aug. 14.—Count von Waldersee, when bidding farewell yesterday to the officers of the Tenth Army Corps at Hanover, according to the Daily Mail's Berlin correspondent, says:

"Upon the pluck of my soldiers I shall rely to carry out my mission for the welfare and the glory of the Fatherland; and I know that if the present difficulties should engender new entanglements the Tenth engender new entanglements, the Tenth Army Corps, to whom I am speaking, will

CONVICTS' NEW MARCH. Military Tactics Instead of Lock Step at Sing Sing.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Sing Sing, N. Y., Aug. 13.-New military tactics, which have been in course of preparation to be substituted for the lock-ster among the convicts in the State prison here. were introduced this afternoon and carried out without confusion.

The prisoners were marched in single and double files, three and four abreast, with the army distance between the leaders and those behind. The prisoners take kindly to this method of marching and do not consider it as degrading as the old lock-step. The military march is not allowed to all prisoners, however, but only to men who out without confusion.
